Coming Soon: PubMed Integration

Coming early May, faculty and academic leaders are going to save a lot of time updating faculty activities in the Faculty Information System (FIS) with the integration PubMed, one of the largest third-party academic publication repositories! PubMed contains 35 million citations from biomedical literature, life science journals, and online books. The new integration will reduce the need for faculty and academic administrators to manually update their CVs and dossiers with their new accomplishments, meaning they can keep their accomplishments updated more regularly and with greater data accuracy.

For Ellucian HRIS customers, and with the expansion of the Ethos connector to support org, title, and position description updates as part of PeopleAdmin's Marketplace Place of Connectors solution, this will eliminate manual entry in Banner and help streamline hiring processes.

Get More Out of PeopleAdmin

For faculty and administrative staff who are importing publications into the Faculty Information System (FIS), we've made it even easier to quickly review and narrow search results. Through improved scrolling, selection, sorting, and dynamic filtering, faculty and administrative staff no longer need to sift through dozens or even hundreds of results to find the publication! The dynamic filters list the publication dates and authors in the import search results, making it easy to select and narrow down to the specific publications to import. Further, sorting by author, year, or title quickly reorganizes the import search results making it even easier for faculty and administrative staff to quickly find and import the publications.
